REASONS TO STUDY

"Why should I study the Bible?" said Brad to his mother. "I go to Sunday school and church. You and Dad always tell me stories from the Bible. I don't need to study the Bible."

3 (three)

Anyway, the Bible is too hard to read. I can't study the Bible."

"Why Brad," Mother said, "yes, you can study the Bible. God wants you to study it. He knows all about you. He wants you to know about Him, too. I'm glad that you can go to Sunday school and church. I'm glad that we can tell you stories about the Bible.

"Brad, God wrote the Bible for you to read for yourself. What if you wrote a long letter to your friend? In your letter you told everything you wanted him to know about yourself. You told everything you wanted your friend to know to help him live a good, happy life. You also told him how he could live forever and ever. Now, Brad, what if your friend never wanted to read the letter? Oh, he heard about the letter. People had told him what it said. He thought it would be too hard to read the letter. So he never read it for himself. Brad, how would you feel about this friend?"

"Oh," Brad shook his head, "I would feel very bad and very sad. I would wish very much that he would want to read it. I would want him to try even if he thought it was too hard."
